“Brewery Mavericks” by Rich Bottles Jr.

“Unlisted PA Merchant Tokens (part 22)” by Larry Dziubek

(Starting with Volume 23-Issue 1, an attempt is being made by PATCO members to build a list of tokens not known when the PA tome was published. We try to follow the example of Dr. Aqua, but stray from the strict standards. There are some storecards included that are not issued by pure merchants. Food Stamp tokens are not included, but we are compiling a separate list of them and need your help. Some, but not all plastic tokens, are included herein. New Independent Brewing Co. varieties are not entered into this list, but are maintained in our database. Some entries are incomplete, because only partial data was provided in eBay sales or retail listings. You are invited to add or correct any of this information if you have seen the actual token. Write to Larry Dziubek.)

Above are two maverick brewery tokens that your editor has taken the liberty to attribute.

Club Information

The annual dues payment of $5 in the Pennsylvania Area Token Collectors Organization (PATCO) entitles members to receive the twice-yearly PATCO Journal and to submit a free 30-word classified ad for each issue.

The goal of this organization is not to limit itself to the exonumia and collectibles of Pennsylvania, but to explore the more diverse collecting interests of its members. To achieve this goal, members are urged to submit articles on subjects that interest them.

When using original material from this newsletter for re-publication, it is requested that acknowledgment be given to the author and the PATCO Journal. Views expressed in the PATCO Journal are those of the respective authors, and not necessarily of the club in general.

Brewery Mavericks

by Rich Bottles Jr.

Sometimes the validity of a maverick attribution weighs heavily upon whether or not a collector owns the token. Thus, convincing a non-owner of the attribution of a token is often challenging for researchers. Nonetheless, here's a couple attributions of maverick brewery tokens I own:

S.W. / 5 / LEISY BRG. CO. // PANNIER BROS / PITTS (25mm, RD, AL)

Leisy Brewing Company was established in Cleveland, Ohio, by the Leisy brothers of Iowa, in 1873. According to the OhioBreweriana (.com) website, "Cleveland offered Isaac and his brothers opportunities which simply were not present in rural Iowa. For example, the complex network of rail lines which sprouted from the city in all directions allowed for efficient distribution of beer to locations outside the Cleveland area. And, indeed, outside markets were aggressively pursued by the Leisys right from the start. The brothers established their own distribution depot in Pittsburgh early on. By 1878, the Pittsburgh facility was doing enough business to warrant the relocation of Henry Leisy to that city for the purpose of overseeing the extensive trade there... Like most brewers of the day, the Leisys owned a large number of saloon properties throughout Cleveland and elsewhere. With the constant fight for business, brewers sought to protect their sales by achieving exclusive placement of their beer in saloons. This goal was often most easily accomplished through outright ownership of the saloons. By the time Prohibition was enacted, more than 200 'outlets,' as they were called, had been owned and operated by the Leisy brewery." The "S.W." on the obverse of the token likely represents a saloon that the Leisy company owned, and the saloon was likely located in Pittsburgh since the token-maker is a well-known pre-prohibition era die-sinker of Pittsburgh, PA.

DRINK GOLD CROWN BEER // BOTTLE CHECK / 5¢ (26mm, RD, BR)

This token is similar in design to the Monongahela Valley Brewing Co. brass five-cent Bottle Check token (Aqua # Clairton B). According to the TavernTrove (.com) website, the Monongahela Valley Brewery (circa 1898-1910) was also known as the H. Roth Brewery. A product of this brewery, during the 1898-1910 era, was Gold Crown Beer. Just after the turn of the century, The Daily Republican newspaper of Monongahela, PA, often ran ads stating: "DRINK GOLD CROWN BEER. It is made of choice malt, hops and pure mountain spring water. Ask for GOLD CROWN BEER at all bars and don't forget to order a case for family use. H. Roth Brewery."

According to the Pa-Roots (.org) website, "Joseph S. Roth, [was] manager of the H. Roth Brewery, at Monongahela City, Pa., which was established by his father in 1893... Andrew Roth was born and reared in Germany, where he learned brewing. He came to America in early manhood and settled at Pittsburgh, Pa., where he became one of the foremost brewers of the south side. After working in a brewery for a number of years, he then turned his attention to the ice business in which he was engaged for ten years, in the same city, after which he retired until 1893, when he came to Monongahela City and purchased the old Monongahela brewery, which he continued to operate under that name for some years."

According to the PittsburghBrewers (.com) website, in 1902 a newspaper or magazine called Money, reported that the Monongahela Valley Brewing Co. built a "new, five-story brewery, including grain elevator and icehouse" on State Street at Locust in Clairton, PA.

Molnar's Lounge & Restaurant in Elizabeth

By Rich Bottles Jr.

After a disappointing sprint through the Washington Antiques Fair on August 26, I drove over to Trader Jack's Flea Market in Bridgeville for a quick look around. When I reached the last couple of aisles of junk, I noticed a small cedar souvenir box on a vendor's table. Inside the box were over eighty plastic and wooden bar tokens, which all appeared to be from Pennsylvania. We struck up a deal and the vendor even threw in the box.

Upon closer inspection, there was one aluminum drink token amongst the plastics and wooden nickels. It was from Molnar's Lounge in Elizabeth, PA. There were also two plastic tokens from Molnar's Lounge in the group, specifically red and green in color.

Even though all the tokens in the group likely pre-dated Herman M. Aqua's Pennsylvania Merchant Tokens catalog, only the green plastic Molnar's token was listed in his tome. Unfortunately, Mr. Aqua misattributed the token as West Elizabeth A. Not only is the newly-discovered aluminum token inscribed with the city name of Elizabeth, PA, but the crossing of Routes 51 & 48 (as listed on all three tokens) takes place on the east side of the Monongahela River in Elizabeth.

Molnar's Lounge and Restaurant is located at 2550 Hayden Blvd, Elizabeth, PA, and it continues to still use the same phone number as listed on the tokens. Their advertising states to "Look for the Big Pink Building" at the intersection of Routes 51 & 48. Molnar's Lounge has been family owned since 1980, boasts over 300 kinds of beer, four pool tables, shuffleboard, and is "Home to the Famous Jumbo Fish Sandwich."

The three known tokens are as follows:

MOLNAR'S LOUNGE / (star) / PH 384-4227 / RT 51 & 48 / (star) / ELIZABETH, PA // GOOD FOR / (star)
